

ARNOLD'S BEAUTY SCHOOL STUDENT ATTENDANCE POLICY

Each student is to attend classes regularly and pursue the instruction and practical work diligently. Students must maintain a minimum of 70% of clock hours per week. Failure to meet the minimum hour requirement may result in warnings, suspension and/or termination.

All practical and theory work missed due to absence must be made up prior to graduation and is the responsibility of the student.

All absences of 3 or more days without notification will be cause for suspension.

A student may be terminated after 10 consecutive unexcused absences.

Poor attendance and poor performance in practical and theory work, may affect eligibility for scholarships and financial aid.
